Strong communities have strong leaders.

Strong leaders do not have all the answers but encourage others to step forward.

"Every community has more potential resources than any one person knows." (Mike Green)

We rely on our leaders:

- To inspire their communities
- To promote new ideas and find ways of doing it
- To involve members of the community in moving forward
- To recover from a crisis by keeping community working together

The relevant question is not simply what shall we do tomorrow, but rather what shall we do today in order to get ready for tomorrow. (Peter Drucker)

It is sometimes hard work being a Community Leader and they sometimes need to be looked after. Recovery after a crisis event is very dependent on community leaders leading their community to make a "new normal".

To help our community leaders Alpine Shire Council together with Department of Human Services is hosting a workshop to provide participants with an understanding of how to support an individual, their family and the community impacted by an emergency.

Ideas on how community leaders can look after themselves, such as maintaining your life balance and resilience during stressful times, will also be discussed.

If you would like to attend please register:

- Date: Tuesday 28th May, 2013
- Time: 12 noon – 5:00pm
- Venue: Myrtleford Uniting Church Hall, Cnr Myrtle and Albert Streets, Myrtleford
- Catering: Lunch and Afternoon tea will be provided. (Please let us know of any dietary requirements.)
- RSVP by the 24th May by contacting Jan Mock, Alpine Shire Council on 03 5755 0575 or email: janm@alpineshire.vic.gov.au

"Community empowerment is a process where people work together to make change happen in their communities by having more power and influence over what matters to them." (Dr Sarah Skerratt)

This project is an initiative of the Alpine Shire Council’s Community Resilience Committee and is funded by emergency management grants.

Alpine Shire Council

Strong communities have strong leaders.

Strong leaders do not have all the answers but encourage others to step forward.

"Every community has more potential resources than any one person knows." (Mike Green)

We rely on our leaders:

- To inspire their communities
- To promote new ideas and find ways of doing it
- To involve members of the community in moving forward
- To recover from a crisis by keeping community working together

The relevant question is not simply what shall we do tomorrow, but rather what shall we do today in order to get ready for tomorrow. (Peter Drucker)

It is sometimes hard work being a Community Leader and they sometimes need to be looked after. Recovery after a crisis event is very dependent on community leaders leading their community to make a "new normal".

To help our community leaders Alpine Shire Council together with Department of Human Services is hosting a workshop to provide participants with an understanding of how to support an individual, their family and the community impacted by an emergency.

Ideas on how community leaders can look after themselves, such as maintaining your life balance and resilience during stressful times, will also be discussed.

If you would like to attend please register:

- Date: Tuesday 28th May, 2013
- Time: 12 noon – 5:00pm
- Venue: Myrtleford Uniting Church Hall, Cnr Myrtle and Albert Streets, Myrtleford
- Catering: Lunch and Afternoon tea will be provided. (Please let us know of any dietary requirements.)
- RSVP by the 24th May by contacting Jan Mock, Alpine Shire Council on 03 5755 0575 or email: janm@alpineshire.vic.gov.au

"Community empowerment is a process where people work together to make change happen in their communities by having more power and influence over what matters to them." (Dr Sarah Skerratt)

This project is an initiative of the Alpine Shire Council’s Community Resilience Committee and is funded by emergency management grants.